Submit your favorite quote - <http://mhs73.info/quotessubmit.html> We thought it would be fun and informative, to provide a page where classmates could post their favorite quotes, proverbs, sayings or other words of wisdom they've come across over the years. Perhaps something that has had an impact on your life caused you to re-think your values or simply made you laugh. Please send us yours.

Alumni and Friends Message Board - <http://www.mhs73.info/messagebd/> We are testing a message board....What is a message board? It is gathering place that allows registered users to post and reply to messages from other users and review the flow of a discussion. Also known as a discussion group. Please let us know if you think the message board adds value to our website community.
